

Literacy

it's everyone's business

2006 ACAL National Conference

Has literacy become a business?

Whose business is it?

How do new welfare and IR policies impact on practitioners and learners?

Australian Council
for Adult Literacy

South Australian
Council for Adult
Literacy Inc.

*Friday 6th, Sat 7th October
Hilton Hotel, Adelaide*

Guest Speakers include

Jeff McMullen (see over)

Janet Giles SA Unions

Elsbeth McInnes Welfare to Work

Jenny Dean ABS

Dave Tout Australian Association Mathematics Teachers

*Attend the NCVET and Reframing the Future Forum
Thursday 5th October*

For details and to register www.sacal.sa.edu.au
or phone In Front Events (08) 8212 7688

NCVER

Join Jeff McMullen for dinner

Members of Public Welcome

'Literacy is the vital first step to improving this health disaster.... The racial gap in learning in Australia is the major civil rights challenge of our time...'

Challenges of Literacy and Health in Indigenous Communities

Friday 6th October 6:30pm Hilton Hotel Adelaide
(2006 Arch Nelson Address in association with the ACAL National Conference)

Australian Council
for Adult Literacy

South Australian
Council for Adult
Literacy Inc.

For details and to register www.sacal.sa.edu.au
or phone In Front Events (08) 8212 7688

Register now!
Public welcome